Jeopardy Competition Game Rules

1. There will be 3 Teams: Ms. Carter, Mr. Mandel, and Ms. Sabbs.
2. For each round, teachers will select a player to represent their team.
3. At the start of the game, teachers will roll a fair number cube to determine which team will gain control of Jeopardy board at the start of the game.
4. Team in control of Jeopardy board will select a category and point amount.
5. All players have an opportunity to answer the selected question.
6. Players need to write their final answer(s) on their whiteboard and try to be the first player standing. If a student needs to change his/her answer(s) they need to sit back down and make their corrections, then stand back up. Players will be called on in the order in which they stood.
7. When game show host calls on players, their answers need to be displayed to the audience and when they verbally give their answers they need to say, “What is…” Players who do not say, “What is…” and players who give incorrect answers will lose points for their question for their team.
8. Depending on the leveling of the question(s) students will have 20 seconds to answer questions in the 100-300 categories, 40 seconds for 400-500 categories, and up to 2 minutes on the Final Jeopardy.
9. Final Jeopardy round will be the last 10 minutes of game show. Teachers/students will choose a classmate to represent their team in Final Jeopardy. As a class, students/teacher will determine a wager amount. (NOTE: Wagers cannot be more than the amount of points earned; if team has negative points, the team can wager the opposite of their negative points.)
10. In an event of a TIE, unused question(s) from any category will be used to break the tie.
11. The winning class will be determined by highest average (mean).
12. Audience members are NOT ALLOWED to give their classmates answers when in the contestant chair. Any class giving answers (in any manner) will be DISQUALIFIED from the game.
13. Audience members are to show Professional Etiquette and Positive Support toward their classmates. (Poor sportsmanship will NOT be tolerated.)
14. Audience members are expected to participate and solve the answers selected from the Jeopardy Game Board on their whiteboards for practice. Any student sitting and not doing their work will NOT earn their participation points for the game show.
15. Yes this is for a grade in Infinite Campus!
Jeopardy Competition Game Rules

1. There will be 3 Teams: Ms. Carter, Mr. Mandel, and Ms. Sabbs.
2. For each round, teachers will select a player to represent their team.
3. At the start of the game, teachers will roll a fair number cube to determine which team will gain control of Jeopardy board at the start of the game.
4. Team in control of Jeopardy board will select a category and point amount.
5. All players have an opportunity to answer the selected question.
6. Players need to write their final answer(s) on their whiteboard and try to be the first player standing. If a student needs to change his/her answer(s) they need to sit back down and make their corrections, then stand back up. Players will be called on in the order in which they stood.
7. When game show host calls on players, their answers need to be displayed to the audience and when they verbally give their answers they need to say, “What is”. Players who do not say, “What is...” and players who give incorrect answers will lose points for their question for their team.
8. Depending on the leveling of the question(s) students will have 20 seconds to answer questions in the 100-300 categories, 40 seconds for 400-500 categories, and up to 2 minutes on the Final Jeopardy.
9. Final Jeopardy round will be the last 10 minutes of game show. Teachers/students will choose a classmate to represent their team in Final Jeopardy. As a class, students/teacher will determine a wager amount. (NOTE: Wagers cannot be more than the amount of points earned; if team has negative points, the team can wager the opposite of their negative points.)
10. In an event of a TIE, unused question(s) from any category will be used to break the tie.
11. The winning class will be determined by highest average (mean).
12. Audience members are NOT ALLOWED to give their classmates answers when in the contestant chair. Any class giving answers (in any manner) will be DISQUALIFIED from the game.
13. Audience members are to show Professional Etiquette and Positive Support toward their classmates. (Poor sportsmanship will NOT be tolerated.)
14. Audience members are expected to participate and solve the answers selected from the Jeopardy Game Board on their whiteboards for practice. Any student sitting and not doing their work will NOT earn their participation points for the game show.
15. Yes this is for a grade in Infinite Campus!